DEAR THOUGHTFUL SOULS

DIRECTOR'S COMMUNIQUE'

Cultivating Resilience

Dear Students,

This school year, let's focus on building resilience, which is mental strength. This skill is more important for your long-term success than any one test grade. Life, in and out of school, will bring challenges—a difficult assignment, a temporary loss, or a small problem. Remember the famous saying from Michael Jordan: "I've failed over and over and over again in my life. And that is why I succeed." The real sign of a strong student is not avoiding mistakes, but learning how to correct yourself and bounce back with new energy. We want you to see mistakes not as dead ends, but as helpful clues and valuable lessons that will show you the best way forward.

When you face a tough time, pause, think about what went wrong, adjust your plan, and try again. Your natural ability to change and keep trying when things are hard is your biggest strength for reaching your goals. Please know that all your teachers and the school leaders are here to strongly support your efforts and celebrate every step of your growth in school and personally. Keep moving forward with focus; your winning comeback story is not just possible—it's ready to happen!

Warmly,

*Director
Fr. Gopu Peter Reddy*

Greetings from the Editor

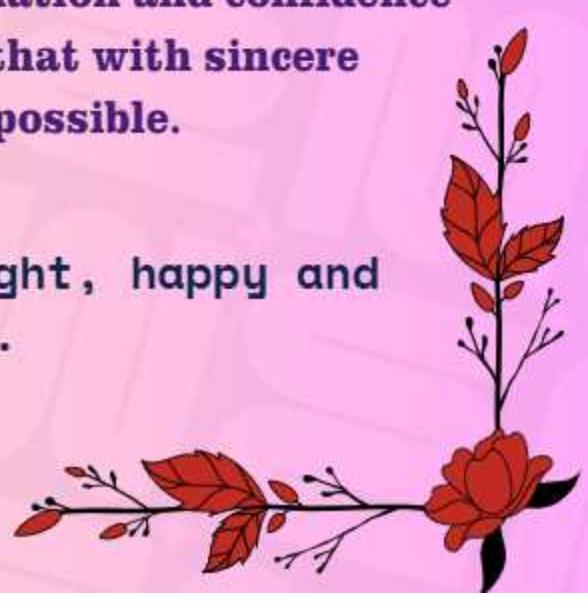

Beloved readers,

It gives us immense satisfaction to present the November edition of our school magazine—an issue shaped with diligence, creativity, and thoughtful reflection. November, often regarded as a bridge between the year's vibrant beginnings and its quiet conclusions, invites us to pause, evaluate, and envision. In this spirit, our editorial team has curated articles, poems, and reflections that capture the intellectual energy and evolving aspirations of our students. Each contribution in this edition echoes a commitment to learning, excellence, and meaningful expression.

We trust that this issue will not only inform and inspire but also encourage every reader to engage more deeply with the world of ideas.

We extend our sincere appreciation to all contributors and hope you find this edition both enriching and memorable.

We hope that they carry the same determination and confidence with them. Their success reminds all of us that with sincere effort and the right mindset, nothing is impossible.

Wishing all our students a bright, happy and successful future.
